COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

SENIOR LECTURER: THEOLOGY

SCHOOL OF RELIGION, PHILOSOPHY AND CLASSICS

PIETERMARITZBURG CAMPUS

REFERENCE NO.: RPC01/2021

The discipline of Theology at UKZN seeks to appoint an experienced and socially engaged scholar to lead and manage its Theology and Development Programme. This is a vibrant inter-disciplinary postgraduate programme that draws students from throughout the African continent and beyond to reflect on issues of social transformation from a prophetic theological perspective. Theology at UKZN has a long and distinguished history of contextual, African centred theological scholarship and practice. The successful candidate will engage in teaching, especially postgraduate teaching and supervision from honours to doctoral level, and participate in research, and have an opportunity to participate in the wider activities of the discipline and its associated units and centres. The incumbent will also be expected to engage with ecumenical bodies and local communities.

Minimum Requirements:

- A doctoral degree in either Theology, Theology and Development, Theology and Ethics or a related field.
- A sustained track record of scholarship and good research publications in the broad field of theology and development.
- Five (5) or more years of relevant teaching experience at tertiary level.
- Experience in the successful supervision of postgraduate students, including at doctoral level.

- Successful fund-raising, a record of community engagement, and relevant experience in curriculum design and development would be an advantage.

The short-listed candidate may be required to make a presentation on a topic to be provided by the School.

This appointment will be made in line with the University guidelines/benchmarks which are available on the University Vacancies website on <http://vacancies.ukzn.ac.za/Academic-Process-Proc-Guides.aspx>.
