COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

SCHOOL OF RELIGION, PHILOSOPHY AND CLASSICS

LECTURER (ONE POST)

CLASSICS

HOWARD COLLEGE CAMPUS

REFERENCE NO.: RPC03/2021

The Classics Programme at the University of KwaZulu-Natal seeks to appoint a qualified and committed Classicist, able to teach the discipline in ways that engage contemporary African students, and pursue research in Classics. The programme offers majors in Classical Civilisation, Latin and Classical Greek, and postgraduate training up to PhD. It is also the home of a Museum of Classical Archaeology. Staff are expected to contribute to taught courses up to honours level, engage in supervision of graduate students, pursue research in Classics, and contribute to administration and leadership. We welcome applicants with additional specialisations in areas related to Classics including Egyptology, Africa in Antiquity, and Archaeology, and would especially welcome applicants able to participate in the curatorship of the Museum of Classical Archaeology and related forms of community engagement.

In accordance with the bilingual language policy at UKZN, the potential candidate will be expected to acquire a working knowledge of isiZulu.

Minimum Requirements

- A Master's degree in Classics;
- Active academic research in Classics (this could include significant progress on a current PhD project);
- Appropriate experience teaching Classics, and ability to teach in all three years of our Latin Major. (Qualification to teach Classical Greek, or commitment to acquire it, would be an advantage.)
- Ability to offer, and ideally experience with offering, teaching in online and hybrid learning environments.

Short-listed candidates will be asked to make a presentation on a topic to be provided by the discipline as part of the interview process.

This appointment will be made in line with the University guidelines/benchmarks which are available on the University Vacancies website on <http://vacancies.ukzn.ac.za/Academic-Process-Proc-Guides.aspx>.
