COLLEGE OF LAW AND MANAGEMENT STUDIES

RE-ADVERTISEMENT

SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, IT AND GOVERNANCE
DEVELOPMENTAL LECTURER POSTS

REF: MIG 05/2014

The College of Law and Management Studies would like to improve the demographic representation of academics in its Schools through nurturing excellent potential academics and integrating them into the academic profession.
The College Developmental Lecturer posts are therefore aimed at young or aspiring Black South African academics with no or limited experience in academia but with potential and interest to pursue an academic career. The successful applicants will report to the Academic Leaders in the respective schools.

These positions need to be filled in the following disciplines:

- Supply Chain Management and Marketing
- Public Governance
- Management and Entrepreneurship
- Human Resources
- Information Systems and Technology (A relevant IS/IT/CS major in their undergraduate degree is a minimum requirement, in addition to a relevant Masters degree).

Minimum Requirements:

• A relevant Masters degree

Candidates will be expected to register for a doctoral degree at appointment and complete within 5 years of the appointment date.

Lecturing experience and publications will be an advantage.

A brief statement of motivation regarding the applicant's aspiration to become an academic and a researcher must accompany the application.

Enquiries and details regarding these post, as well as requests for job profiles may be directed to Ms Lindiwe Ntshangase, 031 260 8764 or e-mail: ntshangasel@ukzn.ac.za.
